Issued for and on behalf of YuvaIntern by Kounal Gupta, Founder, YuvaIntern.com.

OBJECTIVES OF THE INTERNSHIP PROJECT

Implement an automated programmatic cleaning pipeline for raw tabular campaign data.

Evaluate variations in user action data to discover factors driving conversion rates.

Build reusable analysis metrics to inform future marketing asset distribution.

Review campaign KPIs such as CTR, CPC, CPA, and ROAS to identify optimization opportunities.

PROJECT OVERVIEW

Problem Area

Multi-channel advertising generates large, messy behavioral datasets. Without structured preprocessing, campaigns can suffer from low CTR and high acquisition drops.

Analytical Approach

Clean and structure campaign records, compare ad groups and content layouts, review funnel drop-offs, and report actionable performance insights.

Operational scope: analytical review of marketing records spanning a 6-week window.

Key performance indicators: CTR, CPC, CPA, and ROAS.

TASK 1 — DATA PREPARATION & CLEANING

Task 1 Focus

Ingest campaign records and prepare the raw data for reliable analysis.

Identify columns containing irregular formatting.

Handle missing data and formatting of time-related metrics using Pandas arrays.

Group and structure campaign records for further comparison.

Prepare clean tabular data for KPI and performance analysis.

TASK 2 — PERFORMANCE & FUNNEL ANALYSIS

Task 2 Focus

Evaluate user actions, campaign performance, and funnel drop-offs to identify underperforming areas.

Compare ad groups and content layouts using grouping models.

Evaluate user action variations and their relationship with conversion rates.

Review funnel drop-offs to pinpoint underperforming conversion steps.

Use performance indicators to support strategic optimization decisions.

TOOLS & TECHNOLOGIES USED

Programming Environment: Python 3.x ecosystem.

Processing Core: Pandas and NumPy data structures.

Visual Generation: Matplotlib and Seaborn libraries.

Data Preparation: Microsoft Excel — Pivot tables, trend analysis charts, and lookup operations.

PROJECT METHODOLOGY & WORKFLOW

1

Raw Ingestion

Fetch flat logs from ad managers.

2

Cleaning

Process missing data and format time metrics.

3

Compute Core

Run correlation tests between demographics and performance indicators.

4

Reporting

Produce structured outputs and strategic summaries.

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

Automated dashboards that systematically identify high-value consumer groups.

Improved understanding of campaign performance and conversion patterns.

Structured cost mitigation by reducing spending on underperforming content versions.

The report states an expected 12–15% increase in funnel efficiency.

CERTIFICATES OF COMPLETION & PROOFS

The internship report identifies the YuvaIntern Experience Certificate as an official record of internship execution.

Certificate ID: YI/2026/200399/439702.

The report also notes an Offer Letter as an attached proof within the internship documentation.

These records are presented as supporting evidence for the internship.
